

The Idaho Department of Labor
Employer Association of Ada County is a partnership between Ada County businesses and the Idaho Department of Labor offices.

WHAT WE PROVIDE

- Year-round training seminars
- Critical analysis and interpretation of state and federal legislation
- Networking opportunities with business leaders
- Bi-monthly newsletters
- Visibility for your services and products
- Scholarships for businesses and students throughout the year

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is FREE. To find out more please contact us:

Boise Phone: 208-332-3575
E-mail: boisemail@labor.idaho.gov

Meridian Phone: 208-364-7785
E-mail: meridianmail@labor.idaho.gov

INTERESTED IN PARTICIPATING AS A PLANNING MEMBER?

There are additional benefits if you do.

- Attend training sessions for free
- Design content of training sessions
- Increase awareness of work force needs and concerns
- Learn new ways to better serve local businesses
- Expand networking opportunities

To learn more about the benefits of participating as a planning member, please contact us using the same information listed at the top of this page.

Visit us on the Web at labor.idaho.gov

An Equal Opportunity Employer and Service Provider

The Idaho Department of Labor Employer Association of Ada County

Providing quality business resources and training while fostering cooperation between private,
nonprofit and government organizations.

IDAHO
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, GOVERNOR
ROGER B. MADSEN, DIRECTOR

YEAR-ROUND SEMINARS

Training to meet your work force and human resource challenges

Expand business awareness of best practices, employment regulations and innovative ways to manage operations and personnel.

Seminars are offered at a nominal cost.* Most qualify for HRCI credit hours and cover a broad spectrum of topics including:

- Right-sizing the right way
- Managing through uncertainty; engaging change
- Managing risk in the workplace
- Controlling unemployment insurance costs
- Wage, hour and labor laws

See the Idaho Department of Labor Calendar of Events at labor.idaho.gov for upcoming association training seminars.

* Discounts are available for students.

"The convenient and low cost training seminars provided by the association are a great way to keep your skills sharp and find more tools for your toolbox."

Tracey Stone, Director of Recruiting,
Mass Mutual Financial Group

"Monthly topics cover important and timely issues including diversity in the workplace, wage issues and other situations where employers need answers and solutions. Join the Idaho Department of Labor Employer Association of Ada County ~ your one-stop business connection."

Fontella Farmer, Accounting and Human Resource Manager, Signature Title & Escrow

CURRENT INFORMATION FROM THE IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

No-cost services to keep your business thriving

The association offers you updates on important issues including:

- Recruitment and retention
- Employee training and business expansion
- Labor market information
- Controlling your unemployment insurance taxes
- Labor law compliance
- Tax credits
- Required forms and posters
- Professional facilities for meetings or interviewing

BI-MONTHLY E-NEWSETTERS

Timely information to help you make solid business decisions

Our e-newsletter arrives bi-monthly with information including:

- Professional articles
- Overview of future training sessions
- Local networking events
- Business member spotlight

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

Relationships and partnerships to create mutual benefit

Meet and greet with community business leaders from a wide variety of industries, ranging from health care and hospitality to nonprofits and telecommunications.

Vicki Budd, Coordinator/Advisor,
Bachelor of General Studies, Boise State University

"I have found some great connections with people in the community while attending the Idaho Department of Labor's Employers Association meetings. I appreciate the opportunity to be a part of this organization!"